

Haley Hatch Freeman

Author and Professional Speaker

Haley and her remarkable story of defeating anorexia, self-doubts, psychosis (brought on by malnutrition,) and depression are making an impact. She is changing and saving thousands of lives with her powerful message.

See why Haley's book, A Future for Tomorrow, has been featured in newspapers, national publications, and has been sold worldwide. She has been interviewed on radio internationally and on ABC television.

Haley has been professional trained as a speaker, is a member of the Nation Speakers Association, and has spoken to thousands of women, parents and youth.

Her presentation will not only change, but save lives of those in your audience.

Haley mentors women on multiple continents and her impact is being felt around the world. You can contact Haley now to schedule Haley for your event.

Contact Information:

Haley's Heart to Heart, LLC
1121 Quail Run Lane
Elk Ridge, UT. 84651
801-360-5689
HaleysHeartToHeart@gmail.com
www.HaleyHFreeman.com

By the time photos were taken Haley had gained 35 pounds. Can you imagine how ill she was at her lowest weight?

How Haley's Message is Making an Impact

“Haley was amazing! Weeks after she spoke to us we were still talking about it. It was a wake-up call for everyone.” —Phyllis Peterson, Educator in Nebo School District

“Haley carried an important message and touched the hearts of many of our students who are struggling to face life. Her message gave them hope of recovery and fortitude.” —Lanny Adamson, M.Ed. Headmaster Discovery Academy RTC

“Haley's message and style of delivery is powerful. She gets to the heart of one of the biggest issues facing young women today and offers clear, hopeful, bottom line solutions. Everyone should hear her presentation! —Cherie Burton Miss Utah 2004, Author and Purpose Couch.

“I loved Haley's speech! It was very touching and inspirational. I know that she lifted up and inspired every young woman and mother in attendance, including myself.” —Lisa Brereton, Author and Utah High School Coordinator

“Not only will you hear how Haley overcame her struggle with anorexia, you will be able to connect to her spirit to make a difference in this world. I have heard her speak and I have read her book multiple times and I always feel strength from her message.” —Karen Eddington, Self-Worth Analyst